

What a Week! Happy New Year!

On Monday we welcome four new students to the RPC Preschool family!
Please say hello to Evelyn, Charlie S., Elena A., and Elena P.
A new class contact list is in your child's mailbox.

A look ahead....

This week's theme is snowmen and mittens. We'll be reading Jan Brett books and the Snowmen series. Sequencing, measuring, reviewing symmetry, crafting snowmen and snow globes, and much more. Perfect timing for the predicted Tuesday snowfall!

When your child comes wearing boots, please remove them at the bench and put their nametag on the velcro dot above the boots. Have gym shoes for them to wear when we have our gym time.
