

What a Week!

News of November 17

A look back...

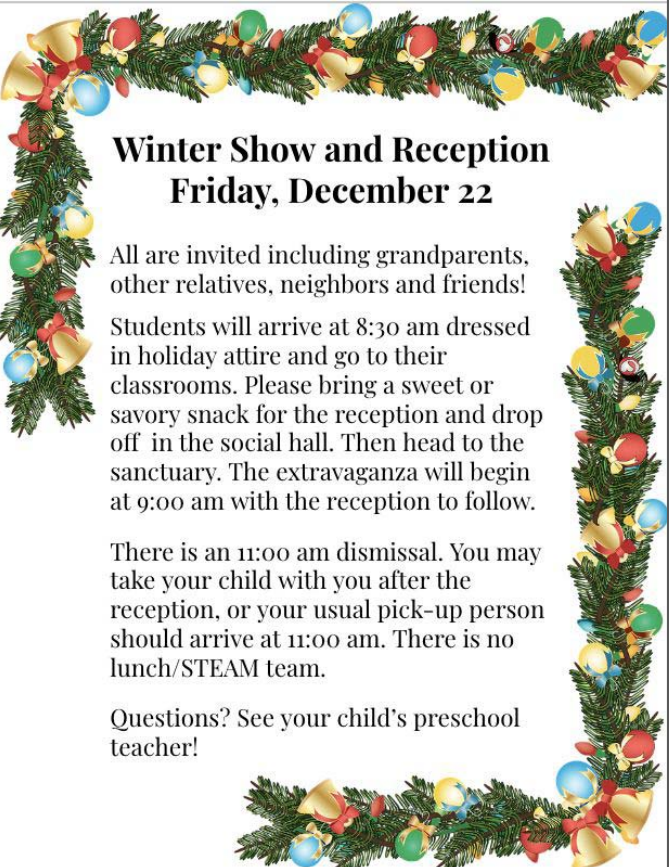

This week we took full advantage of the great weather! Played outside a little longer and took a walk to the library. We enjoyed guest readers, Dr. Sally and the Feast of Friends. You really understood the assignment when portioning the favorite foods!

A look ahead....

When we return on Monday, November, 27, time is going to fly by! The first week back is a gingerbread theme. That Thursday, science will focus on chemical reactions in baking followed by a scavenger hunt to find gingerbread cookies and decorating/eating at snack time.

STEAM will focus on different versions of the gingerbread boy story from around the world. Did you know there's a version from Mexico with a tortilla and from China with a rice cake? We will also be cooking and eating along with comparing and retelling.

The Scholastic book fair kicks off Thursday, November 30. Profits will come back to us in the form of more books.
