

What a Week!

News of September 10

This week we learned all about me and all about school!
Plus the letter A and number 1.
STEAM focused on the five senses.

Next week's theme is Feelings. We will have a guest author, Janan Cain who wrote "The Way I Feel" as reader during snack on Monday. We will also create art inspired by her book. Plus the letter B and number 2.
STEAM will continue to focus on senses and body parts.

Picture Day on Thursday!

While our motto is dress for mess, we know you may want to wear something special for picture day. Please be sure that it's also cozy and fit for going outside. Side note, jeans are hard for littles to get on and off solo. Elastic waist bottoms are better as we head into cooler temps.
