

What a Week! October 9, 2026

Next week's theme is Community Helpers. We're having a visit from the fire station and will take a walking field trip to the police station. There are four guest readers this week! And last but not least, Miss Kristen will lead us through yoga.

We hope you have a great three-day weekend. See you Tuesday!

Change of Seasons = Change of Clothing

Now that fall is in the air, please send a pair of long pants and long sleeved shirt for your child's extra clothing bag and we will send home extra shorts and short sleeved items. Thank you!

Little Food Pantry

Each day when you arrive to school, you walk through RPC's Little Food Pantry. Ever wonder how you can support food insecure neighbors? Bring a canned good, box of pasta, box of granola bars, etc. with you once a week. Have a few minutes between when you arrive and when the door opens? There's a storage room where you will find items to stock the pantry and we have a preschool sized cart. Have your child fill the pantry outside. Thank you for considering the support of this mission.

Parents' Night Out is Saturday, October 25! This is open to the whole community so gatherer friends and have some fun while your kids are with us!
