

What a Week! November 20, 2025 Theme: Giving Thanks

Weekly Recap

Miss Fran from the Library paid us a visit as did Gigi (a grandmother whose RPC preschoolers are now 8 and 11!) for some special sing-a-long time. Willa's mom taught us how to care for skin including our lips and we made lip balm. The Feast of Friends was enjoyed by all. Happy Thanksgiving!

A Look Ahead...

We hit the ground running toward Christmas when school is back in session on December 1!

The week we are back, the theme is Gingerbread. Then Hibernation and Christmas.

Our Holiday Show is Friday, December 19 at 9:00 am. All are welcome! You'll drop off your child as usual at 8:45, then drop a sweet or savory treat in the social hall, and head to the sanctuary to find a seat. The show goes about 30 minutes. We all head down to the social hall for fellowship afterward.

Winter Break starts after the reception. School resumes Monday, January 5 with a Snowman theme. Will there be snow?

Winter Weather Closing Info

Many are predicting extra cold and snow this year. We close when D96 doesn't have in person learning providing families as much advance notice as possible.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6
8:30 am - 12:30 pm
$20.00 PER CHILD; adults free

Enjoy a meal, photos with a professional Santa, and a marketplace vendor fair focused on children purchasing gifts for friends and family.
